COROWA RUTHERGLEN UNITED HOCKEY CLUB INC

PLAYER CODE OF CONDUCT

*Always play by the rules
*Work equally hard for yourself and your team
*Be a good sport and applaud all good plays whether they are made by your team or the opposition
*Treat all players as you would like to be treated – do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor
*Co-operate with the coach, team mates and opponents
*Display modesty in victory and graciousness in defeat
*Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit – not just to please parents and coaches
*Never argue with an official – if you disagree with a decision inform the captain, coach or manager during a break or after the game
*Control your temper –verbal abuse of officials, sledging of other players and deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent is not acceptable or permitted behaviour in sport
*Do not arrive at the venue intoxicated or under the influence of drugs
*Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion
*Thank the opposition and officials at the end of the game

COACH CODE OF CONDUCT

*Remember that players participate for enjoyment and winning is only part of the fun
*Operate within the rules and spirit of the game and teach the players to do the same
*Obtain appropriate qualifications and keep up to date with the latest coaching practices and the principles of growth and development of young players
*Be reasonable in your demands on player's time, energy and enthusiasm
*Ensure - the time players spend with you is a positive experience. All players are deserving of equal attention and opportunities
- Equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the age and ability of all players
- All players are wearing appropriate protective equipment at all times during training and games.

*Display control, respect and professionalism to all involved with the sport including opponents, umpires, coaches, officials, administrators, parents and spectators and encourage players to do the same.
*Show concern and caution toward sick and injured players; follow the advice of a physician when determining whether an injured player is ready to recommence training or competition.
*Never ridicule or yell at players for making a mistake or not winning
*Do not - use bad language nor harass players, officials, spectators or other coaches
- be at training or playing venue when intoxicated or drink alcohol at matches
- allow the unlawful supply of alcohol at training, games or club functions

*Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion

CLUB OFFICIAL/UMPIRE CODE OF CONDUCT

*Be a good sport as actions speak louder than words – lead by example
*Be a positive role model in behaviour and personal appearance and ensure your comments are positive and supportive
*Always place the safety and welfare of players above all else
*Always show concern and caution toward sick and injured players
*Give all players a 'fair go' regardless of the gender, ability, cultural background or religion
*Be impartial, consistent, objective and courteous when making decisions
*Accept responsibility for your actions and decisions
*Promote respect for the individuality of players and always condemn unsporting behaviour
*Avoid any situation which may lead to or be construed as a conflict of interest
*Always respect, remain loyal to and support other officials
*Keep up to date with the latest 'laws of the game', trends and principles of their application
*Do not use any form of personal abuse toward players or other officials
*Do not allow the unlawful supply of alcohol at training, games or club functions
*Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion

WHAT HAPPENS IF THE CODE OF CONDUCT IS BREACHED

If the Code of Conduct is breached the offending person will be made aware of this breach as soon as practical.
Depending on the seriousness of the breach a verbal warning may be appropriate, more serious breaches will be investigated and dealt with by the Executive Committee.
